

Roxbury Heritage State Park/Dillaway-Thomas House

Department of Conservation and Recreation

October 2021 Programs

All programs are free and open to the public. An adult must accompany all children. Reasonable accommodations available upon advance request. Park grounds are open 7 days a week, 9:00am-5:30pm. The historic house is open Wednesday-Sunday, 10:00am-5:00pm. For more information, please call (857) 399-1225 or email roxbury.heritage@mass.gov.

Wednesday-Sunday

(No self-guided tours 10/2, 10/3)

Dillaway-Thomas House Self-Guided Tours 10:00am - 5:00pm

This colonial-era house was built in 1750 as the parsonage for the First Church of Roxbury. Inside the house an interactive exhibit and artifacts tell the story of Roxbury's evolution over three centuries. Appropriate for ages 10 and above.

Thursday-Sunday

(No program 10/1—10/3)

Dillaway-Thomas House Guided Tours: One Roxbury, Many Stories 2:00pm and (Sundays only) 11:00am

This 60-minute tour highlights events, people and objects from the exhibit that tell stories of economic, political and cultural change in Roxbury, from Puritan town to the hub of Boston's Black community. Appropriate for ages 12 and above. Please contact us to schedule group tours.

Friday and Saturday

(No program 10/1, 10/2)

Walking Tour: Preserving an Inclusive History 10:00am - 12:00pm

Join us for a one-mile walking tour of the Highland Park neighborhood of Roxbury, as we reveal stories of resilience, community-building, and cultural identity in the 1970s, layered into buildings from the 1800s. Meet at Roxbury Heritage State Park. Appropriate for ages 12 and above.

Roxbury Heritage State Park

183 Roxbury Street, Roxbury, MA 02119. Tel. (857) 399-1225

coming events